WITH CHRIST AND COMMUNITY

Intergenerational Mission Trip

Next week at this time, a group of 25+ people—including children, youth and adults from elementary age to 80+ years old—will be heading to Morgantown, WV, to participate in an intergenerational mission trip. This is our third year of doing home repairs in Morgantown, making homes safer, warmer, and dryer. The group of volunteers will stay at the University of West Virginia.

Six “advance team” volunteers will drive down on Thursday, July 13, in order to visit each homeowner. During this visit, the team determines if the needed repairs meet our guidelines, as well as our skill levels. After selecting the homes to be repaired, the advance team goes to Lowe’s, purchases the necessary supplies and delivers them to each site, so that the crew arriving Monday morning is ready to work.

We have a short devotional time at lunch, then after dinner we gather to recap the day with “funny moments”, “God moments”, singing and a short talk.

Highland has always been very supportive of all its mission trips, and we are asking that you continue that support by praying for us as we travel back and forth, and work on the sites. This is a wonderful four days of hard work, fellowship, devotionals and building friendships with each other and in the community.

Report from Massanetta Springs Middle School Conference Five of Highland's youth participated in the Middle School Conference at Massanetta Springs in Harrisonburg, VA in June. They would love to tell you about it! They especially enjoyed the famous slip n' slide and the quality time with our friends at First Presbyterian Church Lancaster. The conference theme was "Welcome Home," based on Psalm 23. Our worship, keynotes and small groups all focused on what home feels like and the ways we can find our home in God's love.

We had a wonderful experience and will return next year!
