He was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, “Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.” So he said to them, “When you pray, say: Father, may your name be revered as holy. May your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial.”

And he said to them, “Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him.’ And he answers from within, ‘Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.’ I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything out of friendship, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

“So I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asked for a fish, would give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asked for an egg, would give a scorpion? If you, then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!”

Silent Prayer of Confession Rev. Dr. Ann Osborne

Prayer of Confession Rev. Dr. Ann Osborne

Gracious God, you invite us to come before you in prayer as your beloved children, yet we confess that we often neglect prayer, relying on our own strength instead of trusting in you. We grow impatient, distracted, and doubtful, forgetting that you promise to hear those who ask, seek, and knock. Forgive us, renew our faith, and teach us to pray with humility, perseverance, and trust, that we may receive your grace and walk more faithfully in your way. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon Rev. Dr. Ann Osborne

Leader: Hear the good news: Jesus teaches us that everyone who asks receives, everyone who seeks finds, and to everyone who knocks, the door is opened. Trust in God's mercy and grace. In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven, loved, and welcomed into God's presence. Friends, believe the good news....

People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven! Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
